Office of Worship
Trainings for New Lay Ministers
2012

The Office of Worship is offering training programs for new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, new Proclaimers of the Word (Lectors) and new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick. These programs are offered in order to help parishes provide the required training for new lay ministers.

These sessions are not designed for those who are currently serving in these ministries, although they are welcome to take these sessions for personal edification.

These sessions are not retreats, they are training sessions for new lay ministers.

These are the only new lay ministers trainings offered by the Office of Worship for 2012.

Registration Policy

Payment must accompany all registrations.
The only format to register for training sessions is via U.S. Mail.

The registration fee for all trainings is $15.00 per person per training session.

There is NO registration at the door.

Registration and payment for all training sessions for new ministers needs to be received at the Office of Worship by the Wednesday before the training to ensure proper processing.
